CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

2014 International Neuroethics Society Annual Meeting
November 13-14 in Washington, D.C.

The abstract submission deadline had been extended to MAY 23rd

Don't miss the opportunity to present your research to colleagues from around the world. We welcome abstracts reporting recent results in the field of neuroethics and related topics. Investigators at any career stage are encouraged to submit abstracts. Selections will be made based on content, available space and overall program balance. Participants may submit the same abstract for the INS meeting as for the Society for Neuroscience Meeting.

Accepted abstracts are invited to have a poster at the 2014 INS Annual Meeting in Washington, D.C. on November 13 and 14.

Five submissions will be selected for Oral Presentations
$250/$500/$1000 Travel Stipends will be awarded.

Twenty-five will be published by AJOB-N (American Journal of Bioethics Neuroscience)

(Two $250 INS Travel Stipends; One $500 INS Travel Stipend; Five $1,000 Wellcome Trust Travel Stipends. All awards must be used for attendance at the 2014 INS Annual Meeting.)

Abstracts can be up to 500 words (including title, author names and affiliations and references if applicable). At least one author must be an INS member and register for, and attend, the INS Annual Meeting. Become a member here.

Review will be by the INS Program Committee. Work presented in abstracts must be in compliance with local policies, ethical review related to the use of humans and animals in research, and comply with the INS Abstract Submission and Disclosure Statement.

FORMAT your abstract as follows:

- (1) All text left justified;
- (2) Title in capitals;
- (3) Authors' initials and surnames, with superscripts for institutional affiliations if more than one;
- (4) General question or issue being addressed should be stated at outset;
- (5) References optional and no more than 5, formatted for AJOB-N.

The deadline is 5:00 p.m. US Eastern Time on May 15, 2014. Submit your abstract to administrator@neuroethicssociety.org.

After submitting, you will receive an email to confirm that your abstract was received. Incomplete submissions will not be reviewed. Accepted presentations will receive notification by June 15.

The mission of the International Neuroethics Society is to promote the development and responsible application of neuroscience through interdisciplinary and international research, education, outreach and public engagement for the benefit of people of all nations, ethnicities and cultures.
